

AUTHOR GUIDELINES

Kerala Journal of Psychiatry aims to promote and publish research related to mental health of the people of Kerala. The Journal will be published biannually – in June and in December. However, the articles will be published online immediately after acceptance and copy editing.

All submissions should be made through the online manuscript submission and tracking system at www.kjponline.com. Submitted manuscripts that do not follow the below guidelines will be returned to the authors for necessary corrections. All submissions will be screened by the Editors, and suitable articles will be forwarded for peer review.

For all submissions, at least one of the authors should be a member of IPS Kerala and should have made a significant contribution to the paper.

Authors who do not check their emails regularly are requested to mention their cellphone numbers in the “Comments for the editor” box provided in step 1 of the online submission process.

CONTRIBUTOR’S FORM

KJP’s Contributor’s Form — available at www.kjponline.com/contributors_form.doc — should be read and signed by all the authors; and a scanned copy of the same should be emailed to editor@kjponline.com at the time of manuscript submission.

MANUSCRIPT FILE

- Authors should upload their manuscript file during step 2 of the online submission process.
- Use .doc or .docx files. PDF files will not be accepted.

- Names, affiliations and email addresses of all authors, and the mailing address of the author to whom correspondence should be sent should be entered at the boxes provided in step 3 of the submission process. These details should NOT be included in the manuscript file.
- Abstract and references SHOULD be included in the manuscript file, and should also be entered at the specific boxes provided in step 3 of the submission process.
- Include 3-4 key words, which best represent your submission, below the abstract in the manuscript file.
- Do not incorporate images in the manuscript file. Upload them as supplementary files in step 4 of the submission process.
- Acknowledgments should not be included in the manuscript file, and can be informed to the editor once the manuscript is accepted for publication.

TEXT

- The title should not be more than 12 words long.
- Use font size 12, Times New Roman, in black color.
- Number the pages consecutively in the upper right hand corner.
- The language should be American English.
- Internationally accepted units, symbols, and abbreviations, including those of the Système international, must be used.
- On first appearance in both abstract and text, place abbreviations and acronyms in parenthesis following the term in full.
- Use the official (generic) name throughout; trade (proprietary) names may be placed in parenthesis the first time the drug is mentioned, if necessary.

- Numerals from 1 to 10 are spelt out. Numerals at the beginning of the sentence are also spelt out.

REFERENCES

- Authors are responsible for the accuracy of the references.
- References should be numbered consecutively in the order in which they are first mentioned in the text (not in alphabetic order).
- Identify references in text, tables, and legends by Arabic numerals, in superscript, without bracket, after the punctuation marks.
- References cited only in tables or figure legends should be numbered in accordance with the sequence established by the first identification of that particular table or figure in the article text.
- Use the style of the examples below, which are based on the formats used by the NLM in Index Medicus. Journal titles should be abbreviated as per the style used in Index Medicus. For non-indexed journals, use the complete name.
- Information from manuscripts submitted but not accepted should be cited in the text as “unpublished observations” with written permission from the source.
- Avoid citing a “personal communication” unless it provides essential information not available from a public source, in which case the name of the person and date of communication should be cited in parentheses in the text. Obtain written permission and confirmation of accuracy from the source of the communication.

LEGENDS TO FIGURES AND TABLES

Type legends (maximum 40 words, excluding credit line)

- Captions should briefly explain the figures / tables without the use of abbreviations, and should be understandable without reference to the text.

- When symbols, arrows, numbers, or letters are used to identify parts of the illustrations, identify and explain each one in the legend.

FIGURES

- Acceptable graphic files include TIFF or JPEG formats. Graphs can be submitted in the original program files.
- Minimum resolution is 300 dpi or 1800 x 1600 pixels in TIFF format.
- Each image should be less than 1024 kb (1 MB) in size. Size of the image can be reduced by decreasing the actual height and width of the images (keep up to 1240 x 800 pixels or 5-6 inches)
- Figures should be numbered consecutively, according to the order in which they are first cited in the text.
- Titles and detailed explanations belong in the legends of the illustrations, not on the illustrations themselves.
- When graphs, scatter-grams or histograms are submitted, the numerical data on which they are based should also be supplied.
- Identifying information (including patients' names, initials or hospital numbers) should not be visible in the images unless the information is essential for scientific purposes. If any identifiable images are used, the patient (or parent or guardian) should have given written informed consent for publication.
- If a figure has been published elsewhere, acknowledge the original source and submit written permission from the copyright holder to reproduce the material. A credit line should appear in the legend for such figures.
- The Journal reserves the right to crop, rotate, reduce, or enlarge the photographs to an acceptable size.
- Do not send graphs or diagrams as free hand drawings.

TABLES

- Please do not duplicate information in the text.
- Number of tables permitted: ≤ 6 for Review and Research articles; ≤ 2 for Case Reports.
- Type each table on separate pages, after the references.
- Tables should not have more than 10 columns or more than 25 rows.
- Number tables consecutively in the order of their first citation in the text. Supply a brief title for each.
- Ensure that each table is cited in the text.
- For footnotes, use the following symbols, in this sequence: *, †, ‡, §, ||, ¶, **, ††, ‡‡
- Explain abbreviations. Place explanatory matter in footnotes, not in the heading.
- If means are used, the standard deviation (or error) and "n" should be included.
- Report actual values of $p > 0.01$ to 2 decimal places and $p < 0.01$ to 3 decimal places; report $p < 0.001$ as " $p < 0.001$ " only.
- If you use data from another published or unpublished source, obtain permission and acknowledge them fully.

SPECIFICATIONS BY MANUSCRIPT TYPE

RESEARCH REPORTS

KJP will consider only those studies which have been -

- Conducted in Kerala
- Done by a group of researchers comprising mostly of IPS Kerala members, or
- Done in a sample comprising mostly of Keralites.

The manuscript -

- Should not exceed 5000 words (excluding references and abstract).
- Should have a structured abstract, within 250 words, under following headings: Background (the rationale for the study); Methods (how the study was done); Results

(major findings); Conclusions (a discussion of the results).
